NAPPI BOI

HOST · CORRESPONDENT · BRAND AMBASSADOR

*“Never follows trends.
I am the remix.”*

■ ABOUT N.B

ATLANTA'S LOUDEST WELCOME

I host. I work carpets. I throw the party and I fill the room.

I am CamRon, and everybody calls me NappiBoi. I am the face of Gaye Magazine, a Black LGBTQ+ platform 335,000 people follow, and that mic has put me on the GLAAD Media Awards carpet, at BET, at Black Music Honors, and at Netflix's Atlanta screening of Madea's Destination Wedding.

When I am not holding the mic I am building the night myself. Under Nappi Boi Productions I book the room, the DJ and the flyer, and 200 to 300 people show up. I came out of Alabama State with a Communications degree and co-founded Bama State Buzz on campus, so I have been doing this since before anybody was paying me for it.

Brands hire me because I make a room feel good on camera and off. Entertainment, fashion, culture, health, I move through all of it and I do not water any of it down.
